Music on Your

Vacation No Matter Where You Go,

Take a

Victor or

Victor-Victrola

the music you like, by your favorite orchestras, bands, musi-

A Victor or Victor-Victrola will double your pleasure. Ask us about our special combination

Walter D. Moses & Co.,

Victor Distributors - Wholesale and Retail. 103 EAST BROAD STREET. Oldest Music House in Virginia and North Carolina.

Weatherford Memorial Churches will be held at the Village of Benslay to-morrow. The excursionists will leave Seventh and Perry Streets promptly at $.15 o'clock via the Petersburg elec-tric car line.

Dr. Cridlin's Funeral.

The funeral of Rev. R. W. Cridlin, D. D. was held yestorday afternoon in Stockton Street Baptist Church, with a large gathering of friends and relatives present. Instructions of Dr. Cridlin in regard to the arrangements of the funeral were carried out to the letter by his children. Rev. C. W. Mc-Elroy led the services, assisted by Rev. Elroy led the services, assisted by Rev. R. H. Pitt, D. D., Rev. J. T. Haley and Rev. J. B. Hutson, D. D. Rev. James Buchanan preached the sermon, in which he eulogized Dr. Cridlin as a soldier, patriot, clergyman and educator. The pallbearers were as follows:

Active—Thomas B. Norton, J. F. Watkins, A. W. Nunnally, W. H. Norris, M. Z. Percival, G. W. Williamson, J. T. Puckett and Lewis Ogden.

Henorary—Judge J. M. Gregory, T. H. Ellett, Drs. E. T. and M. P. Rucker, J. C. Snellings and C. B. Price.

HARDWARE MEN HONOR RICHMOND

Association of the Carolinas Leaves Its Territory to Meet Here Next Month.

PROGRAM ARRANGED

Manufacturers' Exhibits and Open Discussion of Trade Topics Features.

Richmond wholesalers and manufacturers of hardware supplies are making elaborate preparations to entertain the Hardware Association of the Carolinas, which will honor Richmond by leaving its territory to hold its annual convention here July 8 to 11, inclusive. The Carolinians will bring their wives and daughters with them, and it is expected that there will be about 700 persons in attendance in addition 700 persons in attendance, in addition to manufacturers from all parts of the country, and retail dealers of Vir-ginia, about 200 of whom have been ginia, about 200 of whom have been invited.

It is stated that from a commercial, as well as a social, point of view, the convention will be an unusually important one, as it is a splendid tribute to the supremacy of Richmond as a wholesale and manufacturing centre. The dealers who will gather here represent millions in the wholesale trade of Richmond, and many of them are special agents for Richmond products. Exhibits will form an especially important feature of this convention, as it is the custom of the association to allott space to manufacturers, and the entire auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel will be devoted to this purpose during a large part of the convention.

To Hear Many Speakers.

The convention will be called to order by the president, M. Bonnoitt, of Darlington, S. C., at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, July 8. The address on behalf of the State will be made by Governor William Hodges Mann, while Mayor George Ainsie will speak for the city, and W. T. Dabney, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will welcome the guests on behalf of the business men of Richmond. The manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will welcome the guests on behalf of the business men of Richmond. The response for the Hardware Association will be by E. R. Preston, of Charlotte, N. C. The remainder of the session will be taken up with impromptu talks by visitors, friends and representatives of the National Hardware associations. ves of the National Hardware Assormal reception for the delegates surance feature of the organization, guests and a sightseeing tour of and will be one of the most important

norning
To Handle Big Program.
The convention will get down to isinces on Thursday, when now memors will be elected and the reports of a president, secretary and treasured be received. Committees on audit srievance, legislation, transportation and traffic bureau, and delegates ast national convention will also fit. The women will be enterd with a car ride to the Country where luncheon will be seen the convention of the Times-Dispatch of Charlottesville, Va. June 24.—F. Boardman Smith, of Wendover Farm, this country, a retired capitalist, left to-day with his wife for Riverside, ill. in response to a telegram announcing that his brother's wife, Mrs. W. K. Smith, and her uncle, George Scott had been killed in an automobile accident. The message stated that the car was struck by a passenger train hear Oak Park, ill. The auto caught in the afternoon.

one that have already been submitted or discussion this year are "Why do ruggists sell more razors than hardare men?" "What are you doing to tilize the parcel post service?" and boes it injure your business to buy heap goods to meet competition?"

HARDWARE MEN OF THE CAROLINAS TO MEET HERE

M. BONNOIT, President.

W. H. KEITH.

H. E. REID.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT

Getting Rendy for Celebration.

Everything is being put in readiness at the Powhatan playsrounds for the big celebration to be held on the Fourth of July. The children are being trained in their parts under the capable direction of Miss Belle Pearce and Odis Hinnant, and the safe and sane Fourth demonstration is expected to be the greatest affair ever pulled off on the Southside.

Through the efforts of Miss Pearce, a piano will shortly be installed in the kindergarten room of the school, to be used for teaching folk dancing. An entertainment will shortly be given in order to raise money to pay for the hose and other improvements recently installed. Prospects Bright for Large Attendance and Varied Course of Study and Entertainment.

[Syeda, to The Fines-Dispatch of the Montessori method will the six weather than the same of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session of the Christotesville, Va., June 24—The eighth annual session during the session du was carried home by Sol Ullman.

Veterans Go to Gettysburg.
About sixty veterans of the War Between the States from the Southside will line up Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at Byrd Street Station for the trip to the reunion at Gettysburg. There the old soldiers will recall reminiscences of the hard-fought battles on that bloody field and grip hands with their blue-coated foes, from whom many received a sabre thrust or a minnie ball.

The train is scheduled to leave promptly at 7:30, and the committee, consisting of Augustine Royall, Judge J. M. Gregory and T. C. Woodfin, request the men to be on hand an hour before train time to secure their tickets and arrange for accommodations.

Rounded Up by Police.

Rounded Up by Police.
William Womack, James Chalkley.
Fred Cook, Norman Womack and
Ernest Pierson were rounded up by Officers Waymack, Sharp and Moore
last night for being disorderly on the street.

Personal Mention.

Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Hustings Court. Part II., is visiting friends in Amelia County.

Dr. S. J. Baker, of 1307 Bainbridge Street, will leave with his family next week for a two weeks' vacation in New York City.

The condition of Mrs. M. L. Webb, who severely injured herself at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Starke, two weeks ago, remains unchanged.

Misses Julia Walthall and McPhail Connelly left yesterday to attend the summer normal school at the University of Virginia.

Miss Aline Redford, of 1204 Porter Street, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Coming of

The Sunbeam How to Avoid those Pains and Distress

Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered

Church Piente To-Morrow.
A joint picnic by Clopton Street and

Bakes Bread To Perfection

Bakes it light and crisp-in a slow, steady oven - and acool, comfortable kitchen.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

Bakes, broils, roasts and toasts.

The New Perfection Oil Cook-stove is cleaner than a coal or wood range. Cheaper than gas. Cooks everything as well as either.

Burns kerosene, the cleanest, handiest fuel.

No coal or ashes to carry. No soot. No smoke. No dust. The new 4-burner Perfection Stove cooks a whole meal at once with the least expense, trouble and discomfort. Indicator shows just how much oil is in font. Smaller stoves with 1, 2 or 3 burners. Ask your dealer to show you a New Perfection with patent broiler and other accessories, or write for descriptive circular to

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Washington, D. C. Richmond, Va. Norfolk, Va.

(New Jersey) BALTIMORE

Charlotte, N. C. Charleston, W. Va. Charleston, S. C.

BROWN REPLIES TO COMMISSIONER KOINER

ment pension of $75 a month, in addition to which he will receive perquisites which increase the pension to about $100 a month. Bremer's record during his enlistment was excellent, and his discharge papers record the fact.

No Co-Operation.

It is true, as he says, and I have said nothing to the contrary, that occasionally members of the staff of V. P. I have accompanied the institute trains and again have had to decline on account of classroom duties, but this but emphasizes the truth of my statement, as showing that in arrangmail reception for the delegates guests and a significance of interesting the decrease of the convention. The business of the convention of the convention of the convention of the convention of the defermant of Wednesday will be devoted to convent of the convention of the defermant of Wednesday will be devoted to convent of the convention of the defermant of the defermant of the devoted to convent of the convention of the devoted to convent of the conv

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., June 24.—The ordination of M. L. Bannister into the Baptist ministry took-place at the First Baptist Church last night, following his examination in the afternoon by Dr. Furman H. Martin, chairman of the council; the Rev. H. J. Parker, of Richmond, secretary, and the Revs. O. W. Triplett, of this city, and J. M. Luck, of Crozet. The ordination sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Luck.

The newly ordained minister is already pastor of three important churches in Albemarle County—Cedar Grove, Slate Hill and Laurel Hill. His home is in Anderson, S. C., but for the past two sessions he has attended the University of Virginia.

UNIVERSITY OPENS

Roche's Herbal Embrocation will also the outsile very efficacious in cases of BRONCHITIS, LUMBAGO AND RHEUMATISM W. Edwards & Son. London, England All Druggett, et B. Parkers & Co.

mentanger of the property of the commissioner central and accomplish feed deniete resists.

To suffice the property of the commissioner central the contract central the central the contract central the central the central the central the central the central t

It is a pity more women do not know of Mother's Friend. This remedy softens the muscles, enables them to expand without strain and enables women to go through the ordeal without pain, nausea, morning sickness or other dreaded symptoms so familiar to many dreaded symptoms so familiar to many mothers.

There is no foolish diet to harass the mind. Thousands of women no longer resign themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They heavy better feetings.

Bessie Burruss and Alice Tanner.
Vocal solo, "Will-o'-the-Wisp," Mrs.
Railey Shiftet.
Plano solo, "Mazurka de Concert,"
Miss Minnie Brown.
"Brise Printaniere," Misses Daisy
Bullfant and Gladys Ryder, Misses
Ethel Bookman and Midred Ellis.
"Beetles Dance," Misses Myrtle and Luclie Leonard.
"Crown of Triumph," Misses Edna
Lawson and Hifda Drimm, Misses
Martha Loving and Maud Roach.
"Polka de la Reine," Miss Mattie
Bell Anderson and Miss Minnie Brown.

Church Picnic To-Morrow.
A joint picnic by Clopton Street and

expectant mothers,